1.1	03/05/2021	Section 2 amended to remove reference to non special-category data	Membership Officer	Governance Director

References to we, our or us in this privacy notice are to England Touch Association Ltd (company registration number 07164624), C/O Kilsby Williams, Cedar House, Hazell Drive, Newport, Wales, NP10 8FY.

We are committed to respecting your privacy. This notice is to explain how we may use personal information we collect before, during and after your working relationship with us. It sets out how we comply with the law on data protection and what your rights are. For the purposes of data protection we are the data controller of any of your personal information.

We have not appointed a Data Protection Officer to oversee our compliance with data protection laws as we are not required to do so, but our Governance Director has overall responsibility for data protection compliance in our organisation. Contact details are set out in the "Contacting us" section at the end of this privacy notice.

Personal data is information that relates to a directly or indirectly identified or identifiable individual. We are accountable for complying with the key principles of the UK General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), requiring that personal data shall be:

- processed lawfully, fairly and in a transparent manner in relation to individuals
- collected for specified, explicit and legitimate purposes and not further processed in a manner that is incompatible with those purposes
- adequate, relevant and limited to what is necessary in relation to the purposes for which they are processed
- accurate and, where necessary, kept up to date; every reasonable step must be taken to ensure that personal data that are inaccurate, having regard to the purposes for which they are processed, are erased or rectified without delay
- kept in a form which permits identification of data subjects for no longer than is necessary for the purposes for which the personal data are processed
- processed in a manner that ensures appropriate security of the personal data, including protection against unauthorised or unlawful processing and against accidental loss, destruction or damage, using appropriate technical or organisational measures.

PRIVACY NOTICE FOR EMPLOYEES, WORKERS, DIRECTORS AND CONSULTANTS

This notice applies to our current and former employees, workers, directors and consultants. This notice does not form part of any contract of employment or other contract to provide services.

1. PERSONAL INFORMATION

When you interact with us in relation to your work with us, you may provide us with or we may obtain personal information about you, such as information regarding your:

- personal contact details such as name, title, addresses, telephone numbers, and personal email addresses and emergency contact details
- date of birth
- sex
- marital status and dependants
- referee details, next of kin, beneficiaries, details of family members and emergency contacts
- national insurance number and other tax or governmental identifiers
- bank accounts, payroll and tax status
- salary, insurance, annual leave, pension, benefit entitlement and expenses
- start date and leaving date
- location of employment or workplace
- attendance history
- driving licence(s) (including copies where we are required to hold such information for identification or insurance purposes where you [or other members of your family] are to use our vehicles) and vehicle details
- identification documents and information such as passport, utility bills, identity cards, signature etc;
- recruitment (including copies of right to work documentation, past employment history, references and other information included in a CV or cover letter or as part of the application process)
- employment records and notes (including job titles, work history, working hours, training records, professional memberships, maternity, parental and compassionate leave and details of any home-working assessment for health and safety purposes) and education and professional records/qualifications
- compensation history and charity donation preferences
- performance including that generated through our appraisal systems

PRIVACY NOTICE FOR EMPLOYEES, WORKERS, DIRECTORS AND CONSULTANTS

- shareholding, option, SARS and dividend entitlement
- records of enquiries and other correspondence with you
- loans that you have made to us or we have made to you

2. SPECIAL CATEGORIES OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

We may also collect, store and use the following “special categories” of more sensitive personal information regarding you:

- information about your race or ethnicity, religious beliefs, and sexual orientation
- information about your trade union memberships
- information about your health, including any medical condition, health and sickness records, medical records and health professional information

We may not collect all of the above types of special category information about you. In relation to the special category personal data that we do process we do so on the basis that:

- the processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, on a lawful basis
- it is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims
- it is necessary for the purposes of carrying out the obligations and exercising our or your rights in the field of employment and social security and social protection law
- based on your explicit consent

In the table below we refer to these as the “special category reasons for processing of your personal data”.

We may also collect criminal records information from you, for example to fulfil our safeguarding responsibilities. For criminal records history we process it on the basis of legal obligations or based on your explicit consent.

3. WHERE WE COLLECT YOUR INFORMATION

We typically collect personal information about employees, workers, directors and consultants through the application and recruitment process, either directly from candidates or sometimes from an employment agency or background check provider. We may sometimes collect additional information from third parties including former employers, credit reference agencies or other background check agencies. We will also collect additional personal information in the course of job-related activities throughout the period of you working for us.

If you are providing us with details of referees, next of kin, beneficiaries, family members and emergency contacts they have a right to know and to be aware of what personal information we hold about them, how we collect it and how we use and may share that information. Please share this privacy notice with those of them whom you feel are sufficiently mature to understand it.

PRIVACY NOTICE FOR EMPLOYEES, WORKERS, DIRECTORS AND CONSULTANTS

They also have the same rights as set out in the “Your rights in relation to personal information” section below.

4. USES MADE OF YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

The table below describes the main purposes for which we process your personal information, the categories of your information involved and our lawful basis under the GDPR for being able to do this. The lawful basis includes handling your personal information:

- in order that we may perform our services and obligations under any contract with you.
- for our legitimate interests to deliver our services to you provided these are not overridden by your interests and fundamental rights and freedoms. You can contact us to ask us for more information on the specific interests and how we balance those to ensure privacy is respected.
- for processing which is necessary for compliance with our legal obligations laid down by European Union law (where relevant) and by national laws.
- with your consent. This means your freely given, specific, informed and unambiguous consent which may be collected from you at the time at which it is requested, including in relation to any direct marketing communications.

For some of your personal information you will have a legal, contractual or other requirement or obligation for you to provide us with your personal information. If you do not provide us with the requested personal information we may not be able to engage your services or we may not be able to properly perform our contract with you or comply with legal obligations and we may have to terminate your engagement. For other personal information you may not be under an obligation to provide it to us, but if you do not provide it then we may not be able to properly perform our contract with you.

Where you have given us your consent to use your personal information in a particular manner, you have the right to withdraw this consent at any time, which you may do by contacting us as described in the "Contacting us" section below.

Please note however that the withdrawal of your consent will not affect any use of the data made before you withdrew your consent, and we may still be entitled to hold and process the relevant personal information to the extent that we are entitled to do so on bases other than your consent. Withdrawing consent may also have the same effects as not providing the information in the first place, for example we may no longer be able to provide certain benefits to you.

5. DISCLOSURE OF YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

We share personal information with the following parties:

- Any party approved by you.
- Other service providers to our business and advisors: for example, payroll, pension administration, benefits provision, professional advisors and administration, and IT services. All our third-party service providers and other entities in the group are required to take appropriate security measures to protect your personal information.
- Prospective new employers: for the provision of references for you;
- The Government or our regulators: where we are required to do so by law or to assist with their investigations or initiatives for the financial services industry.
- Police, law enforcement and security services: to assist with the investigation and prevention of crime and the protection of national security.

PRIVACY NOTICE FOR EMPLOYEES, WORKERS, DIRECTORS AND CONSULTANTS

We do not disclose personal information to anyone else except as set out above.

6. TRANSFERRING YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION INTERNATIONALLY

The personal information we collect may be transferred to and stored in countries outside of the UK and the European Union. Some of these jurisdictions require different levels of protection in respect of personal information and, in certain instances, the laws in those countries may be less protective than the jurisdiction you are typically resident in. We will take all reasonable steps to ensure that your personal information is only used in accordance with this privacy notice and applicable data protection laws and is respected and kept secure and where a third party processes your data on our behalf we will put in place appropriate safeguards as required under data protection laws. For further details please contact us by using the details set out in the "Contacting us" section below.

7. HOW LONG WE KEEP PERSONAL INFORMATION FOR

The duration for which we retain your personal information will differ depending on the type of information and the reason why we collected it from you. However, in some cases personal information may be retained on a long-term basis: for example, personal information that we need to retain for legal purposes will normally be retained in accordance with usual commercial practice and regulatory requirements. Generally, where there is no legal requirement we retain all physical and electronic records for a period of 6 years (if you are a current employee or director, this may be for 6 years after your employment or term of office ends). Exceptions to this rule are:

- Details regarding unsuccessful job applicants where we hold records for a period of not more than 12 months
- Information that may be relevant to personal injury claims, employment claims, discrimination claims may be retained until the limitation period for those types of claims has expired. For personal injury or discrimination claims this can be an extended period as the limitation period might not start to run until a long time after you have worked for us.
- Information that may be useful to a pension provider or benefit provider which we may retain for the period that your pension or benefit is payable.

It is important to ensure that the personal information we hold about you is accurate and up-to-date, and you should let us know if anything changes, for example if you move home or change your phone number or email address.

You may be able to update some of the personal information we hold about you through our membership platform accessed via <http://englandtouch.org.uk/membership/>. Alternatively, you can contact us using the details set out in the "Contacting us" section below.

8. YOUR DATA PROTECTION RIGHTS

Under data protection law, you have rights including:

- Your right of access - You have the right to ask us for copies of your personal information.
- Your right to rectification - You have the right to ask us to rectify personal information you think is inaccurate. You also have the right to ask us to complete information you think is incomplete.
- Your right to erasure - You have the right to ask us to erase your personal information in certain circumstances.
- Your right to restriction of processing - You have the right to ask us to restrict the processing of your personal information in certain circumstances.
- Your right to object to processing - You have the right to object to the processing of your personal information in certain circumstances.
- Your right to data portability - You have the right to ask that we transfer the personal information you gave us to another organisation, or to you, in certain circumstances.

You should note that some of these rights may not apply as there are specific requirements and exemptions which apply. However, some have no conditions attached, so your right to withdraw consent or object to processing for direct marketing are absolute rights.

Whilst this privacy notice sets out a general summary of your legal rights in respect of personal information, this is a very complex area of law. More information about your legal rights can be found on the Information Commissioner's website at <https://ico.org.uk/for-the-public/>.

To exercise any of the above rights, or if you have any questions relating to your rights, please contact us by using the details set out in the "Contacting us" section below. You are not required to pay any charge for exercising your rights. If you make a request, we have one month to respond to you.

If you are unhappy with the way we are using your personal information you can also complain to the UK Information Commissioner's Office or your local data protection regulator. We are here to help and encourage you to contact us to resolve your complaint first. Any complaint will be fully investigated in line with the England Touch Association's Complaints Policy.

9. CHANGES TO THIS NOTICE

We may update this privacy notice from time to time. When we change this notice in a material way, we will update the version date at the bottom of this page. For significant changes to this notice we will try to give you reasonable notice unless we are prevented from doing so. Where required by law we will seek your consent to changes in the way we use your personal information.
