Title: National Squad – Team Operations Manager

We are looking for enthusiastic individuals to join the High Performance Team, to assist one of our teams throughout both the 2023 and 2024 International Campaigns.

Role purpose:

An England National Squad Team Operations Manager will:

- Be responsible for the organisation and administration of their allocated team from pre-tournament preparation through to post-tournament wrap up meeting; and
- Work within a matrix management environment with the England High Performance team (specifically Head of Elite Operations), with a dotted line management to the Head Coach of their respective national team

Reports to: Head of Elite Operations (with dotted line to respective Head Coach)

Team: High Performance Team

Hours required: 2-5 hours of planning and review work on a week-to-week basis (the workload varies throughout the campaign) in addition to England training sessions as required.

Locations: Work from home; working away from home for both England training and tournaments.

Contract type:

Appointment by High Performance Director and Head of Elite Operations

Appointment will be for the duration of the 2023 and 2024 Campaigns.

Salary and benefits:

Voluntary role; tournament accommodation provided free of charge plus fixed sum tournament travel allowance; kit allowance also provided. Part of the #OneEngland Rewards and Recognition scheme. If you have any questions please contact the High Performance Director, Ben Powell (Ben@englandtouch.org.uk)

Experience:

- Demonstrable team management experience, delivering within pressurised environments with multiple stakeholders;
- Previous elite sporting team management experience. Touch (at international, or England Nationals or NTS level) is preferable, but other sports would be beneficial.

Qualifications:

- Basic sports first-aid training qualification is highly advantageous; and
- DBS check will be required, if not already completed

Key dates: TBC
